Are you glad to see that your Okawville Pirates stormed past the A-10 Eagles 3-2 tonight? The GJ Ithaca Sawmill Pirates are proud to announce the first annual Okawville Pirate Week. The week is going to be a great event for the community as we all get excited for the start of Okawville Pirate Week. The event's main focus is for the residents of Okawville and surrounding areas to get out and watch their local teams. Although the week isn't going to be lengthy, it's going to give a pretty fun atmosphere for the area to get together and watch some of the local teams play some great baseball. The week's going to be fun, different, and overall a great time. Don't miss a single game; order your Okawville Pirate T-Shirts. Tim Sherwood is under renewed pressure from supporters over his future in charge of Tottenham following their 3-2 defeat to Liverpool on Saturday. Tottenham's chairman Daniel Levy handed Sherwood a vote of confidence following their comprehensive defeat to Klopp's side, and he and the manager have already agreed to meet before the fixture against Stoke on Saturday. However, it is understood that several Spurs fans at the game believe that Sherwood is in danger of being made to find the back door to the exit at White Hart Lane. Prominent supporters have turned their backs on the manager, with the North London Post reporting that the White Hart Lane turnstiles appeared to be spitting on him during Saturday's match. The website reported a "massive 'boo' " towards Sherwood after his team's defeat and stated that the atmosphere inside the stadium remained "incredibly hostile" towards the boss, despite the reaction of the North London club turning to what they termed as a "great 'team spirit' ". Fans are understood to have taken out their frustration on the Tottenham players on the pitch, one such person being Mason Richardson, who had a string of disagreements with Sherwood. The pressure on the boss is mounting, with the Spurs fans suggesting that they want Tottenham to finish in the top four and Champions League qualification. However, despite the fans' dissatisfaction, there have also been suggestions from sections
