Ergon is on the brink of extinction, its inhabitants have chosen to take control of their own lives. Viral infection means death within a fortnight. Despite this, a few people want to survive and provide Ergon with a new, improved form of life. [User]Claire lives on in a world where only three species survive. A kind, though bizarrely optimistic hippo, he dreams of a future where all animals can live in harmony. However, his peace is short-lived as he is infected with the virus – the first sign of a revolution brewing on the streets of Ergon. [User]Fiona is a police biologist with a troubled past. When the virus reaches the main city of Ergon, Fiona must choose between her job and her own survival. You are Claire and Fiona. Together you must choose between the Hippo Chronicle and Ergon. [User]Andy is a private detective with a knack for breaking and entering. While investigating the Hippo Chronicle, he encounters Claire and Fiona and decides to help. Claire, Fiona and Andy head into the city of Ergon to find the cure for the virus before it's too late. If Claire or Fiona is infected or dies, Andy will be forced to choose either Fiona or Claire, but not both. So find the cure to save them all! Storyline Claire, Fiona and Andy are struggling to understand the past. As they unravel the mystery of the Hippo Chronicle it will set them on a path that will force them to confront the reality of their own mortality.Q: PowerShell Remoting: Remoting version error I have an application that needs to be run on both servers, but I'm receiving the following error on the remoting version when executing a method that's supposed to be on the other server. ERROR: Timeout waiting for the server to connect. Make sure that the required services are running and that the remoting (com) module is correctly installed and registered on the remote computer. I have the remoting version set up like so: How do I set up the remote path so that it's accurate when executing remotely, and what does the error even mean? I'm not even sure what the error is telling me. I'm guessing it's a misconfiguration on the remote server. A: OK, after a fair amount of time I finally

Hard to learn? No problem! Underground Garage teaches and helps you learn to play the most popular electronic music games in one convenient place. From Beatmania, to Rockband, to Dance Dance Revolution and Beatmania, Underground Garage is the best way to learn or teach your hobby. What We Do: We provide online training and tutorials for music games. We have training on our games for users who want to learn how to play. We have some great lessons with audio and video to help you learn to play. We also teach you how to play beatmania IIDX 9! We provide online courses for all the songs in the game. This is more for those who already have the game and just want to play the songs with friends or a potential match on the leaderboards. Why Choose Us? We've been around for quite some time and have become the go-to place for video game tutorials. If you are looking for a site to learn games, find a site, pick the game you want and pay for the lessons. We've got it all: Rockband, Dance Dance Revolution, Beatmania, Guitar Hero, DJ Hero, DDR and Beatmania. We're always looking for new games and new developers to add to the site. So let us know. Making and Uploading Lessons: We are constantly looking to make all of our lessons fun, easy and accurate. Make sure you submit lessons when they're good, and keep in touch with us if you think you have a better way of teaching.Build Notes Build 2.7.5 New Features Tutorial We have reworked the tutorial to be less repetitive and focus more on the gameplay. All of the classes have new sub-tutorials and a few more things to do in the class select window. Gadget Options Window This version lets you drop down to the next gadget tier right from your gadget inventory. Self-Defense Self-Defense has been completely reworked. The new system is a lot easier to use and much more fluid. There are no more of the four-to-eight options in the dungeon now, instead the attack resets after each match. Clan Clash Clan Clash has been completely reworked. This time around, it is a goal-based strategy game based on the very popular turn-based strategy game Final Fantasy Tactics. Visit our development blog! Our developer blog will keep you up to date on our progress. We also publish some developer sketches, art, and even video commentary! Support our Official Forums!Come visit our forums! Outdated NewsOur very first game! We've put together a teaser trailer for it as a proof of concept. Don't expect a full-fledged game from us just yet.We'd like to thank! They've been very supportive of our work, and we've learned a lot from them. Some newer news. We're working on something we've been thinking of for a while now. We will soon give more info on what that is, but for now we can tell you that the game will have different genres, a single campaign, will be free-to-play with paid content, and will have Steam achievements. We're very excited about this, and looking forward to bring a new and different gaming experience. Admission of guilt and/or mercy at sentencing by former President Jacob Zuma during the murder trial of President Robert Mugabe's right-hand man, former national police commissioner General Wayne Bvudzijena.The murder trial of Mugabe's former right-hand man Wayne Bvudzijena, who was himself tried for the murder of the Nkandla agricultural workers' dispute in 2007, begins today.Former police commissioner General Bvudzijena, who was allegedly behind the killing of nine people at Marikana, was acquitted by the Western Cape High Court last month. He's being tried for the murder of four comrades who were shot at Marikana in 2012, allegedly at the hands of former Brigadier Siyabonga Mogosi, who was killed in an attempted coup of Mugabe in 2013.The killing of the nine workers at Marikana was allegedly at the hands of police who tried to prevent the planned work stoppage by striking miners in August 2012. During his trial, former police commissioner Bvudzijena said: "I plead guilty to having committed the murder and I don't plead to having wanted to murder them." A few days later, he also said: "I would plead guilty to having been one of the officers who participated in the massacre of our fellow brothers and sisters at Marikana." The judge says these statements are meaningless. South African police make fun of the self

Communities Recent Comments Archives Categories There are many reasons why you should have a basement. It is the best place to store and organize your stuff. It is also a cool place to hangout and enjoy your family fun. It is one of the best places to have an if you want to save some money. It is a great investment, the house will be so much more worth. You don't pay a lot for basements as they are very cheap to construct. It is simple for you to construct and to rent it out. Here are some of the benefits of having a basement. Cost Savings When you come out of the construction of the basement, you will save on several things. What one of these things is the cost of the building. It is hard to show the savings that you get when you have a basement in the house but still, you get the knowledge that you are cheaper and you don't have to use those furniture items that have been up to the loft recently. It will give you relief to know that in the longer run, you will save money on electricity and the utility bills. Space This is the one things that most people really want in their house, the best floor plan. You will get more space in the basement for your living. When you have it constructed you will feel like you actually have a basement and not just the space that you are in the building. It will also be a perfect spot for you to have a workout room, a play room and all the other activities for your kids. It will be easy for you to store your stuff in this space. This will give you more space and you will have more money to buy other new stuff for your house. Money Another reason why basements are popular is because they are great investments. You will enjoy more savings when you keep your money in the basement for it will be safe from your house. You don't need to go to the bank every so often and ask for some money, instead you will have them in your house. You don't have to pay too much for interest, instead you can use them to make remodeling additions to the house. Fires Basements are the first place to look when it is time to fight fires. When you are ready to get a call when your house is on fire, when this happens, you should look to the immediate basement. Some houses have their basements c
