project from.NET 3.5 to.NET 4.5, but the DataBinding doesn't work as expected. It seems to me that the default template is used and not the one I am configuring in my xaml. A: I have figured that the problem was one of the app.config files. The one referenced in the Main window application is missing the InitialWindowView and InitialDisplayMode tags. I have figured this out by inspecting the root tag, which looks like: 6d1f23a050
