370, Jammu and Kashmir ministers of the PDP Monday demanded that the government take concrete steps for the rehabilitation of Kashmiri students outside the state. “In the past several decades, there was a steady decline in the numbers of students studying outside the state. However, after the abrogation of the special status of J&K and New Delhi’s decision to bifurcate the state, the trend of Kashmiri students studying outside the state has increased. “Last year, there were more than 3,000 students of Kashmiri origin who applied for scholarships outside the state. This year, the number has increased to more f988f36e3a
